

Doctors Hospital Otolaryngology Curriculum

Academic year consists of 13, four-week blocks

PGY 1

General Otolaryngology – 6 Blocks
Radiology / Oncology – 1 Block
ICU – 1 Block
Anesthesia – 1 block
Emergency Medicine – 1 block
General Surgery – 1 block
Pediatric General Surgery – 1 block
Plastic Surgery – 1 Block

PGY 2

General Otolaryngology – 6 Blocks
Head and Neck Surgery / Otology – 2 Blocks
Pediatric Otolaryngology – 2 Blocks
Plastic Surgery – 2 Blocks
Research – 1 Block

PGY 3

General Otolaryngology – 6 Blocks
Pediatric Otolaryngology – 2 Blocks
Head and Neck Surgery / Otology – 2 Blocks
Plastic Surgery – 2 Blocks
Research – 1 Block

PGY 4

General Otolaryngology – 8 Blocks
Otology – 1 Block
Head and Neck Surgery – 1 Block
Plastic Surgery – 2 Blocks
Research – 1 Block

PGY 5

General Otolaryngology – 13 BLOCKS

This program is designed to prepare its graduates to sit for the certifying examinations offered by the American Osteopathic Board of Otolaryngology.

Otolaryngology residents are required to obtain competencies in the 6 areas below to the level expected of a new practitioner:

Patient Care
Medical Knowledge
Practice Based Learning and Improvement
Professionalism
System- Based Practice

Conferences

Otolaryngology Core Curriculum/COCLIA
Morbidity and Mortality Conference
Guest Speakers/Special Conferences
Rotation-Specific Conferences

Courses

FLEX – AAOHNS Focused Lifelong Education Xperience (Home study course)
Temporal Bone Dissection
Sinus Anatomy & Skills Lab

Research

Every resident is required to conduct and publish research during the four-year residency

Teaching

Residents are an essential part of the teaching of medical students.