

Internal Medicine Curriculum

Block Schedule

Organized in 13, 4 week blocks

PGY 1

2 blocks critical care
1 block nights
4 blocks inpatient general medicine
1 block emergency medicine
1 block pulmonary
1 block cardiology
1 block ambulatory neurology
1 block clinic
1 elective
4 weeks of vacation

PGY 2

1 block critical care
1 block nights
3-4 blocks inpatient general medicine
1 block neurology
1 block gastroenterology
1 block infectious disease
1 block cardiology
0.5 block hematology/oncology
0.5 block addiction medicine
1 block clinic
1 block elective
4 weeks of vacation

PGY 3

1 block nights
1 block critical care nights
3 blocks inpatient general medicine
0.5 block geriatrics
0.5 block rheumatology
1 block endocrinology
1 block population health clinic
1 block clinic
3 electives
4 weeks of vacation

Electives

One of the strengths of our program is the resident's ability to customize the block schedule to meet his or her educational needs.

Required and elective subspecialty blocks are completed at Doctor's Hospital, Riverside Methodist Hospital and Grant Medical Center. In addition, residents are encouraged to schedule away electives when this would enhance their fellowship application or meet their educational needs.